Coaching Clinics: Terence McWilliams - Games Development Manager, Ulster GAA
Sergio Lara Bercial - Senior Research Fellow, Leeds Metropolitan University

The Mini-Games Seminar is open to coaches, administrators and policy makers from clubs and organisations who wish to listen to, discuss and observe the latest developments in relation to mini-games or small sided games. This seminar has been organised to ensure an integrated approach to mini-games can be achieved for those involved across the Southern Sports Partnership region.

If your club has not yet got involved in mini-games and would like to learn more or if you are involved but would like to improve your club's approach this session is for you. There will be opportunities to hear how each sport has approached the subject and the challenges and successes that this has brought. Coaching clinics will also offer the opportunity to see live how mini-games should be approached from an all encompassing coaching ethos. Mini-games is not just games, its your ethos, approach to and delivery throughout your coaching or development of your club / league.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided. Places are limited and bookings will be taken on a first come first served basis. To book a place please call 028 3831 4470 or email info@southernsports.co.uk
